

NOTES TO CHART VII

Henry Adams (No. 728) was from Braintree, Mass., and died there Oct. 6, 1646.

Ensign Edward Adams (No. 364) was born in England in 1630, settled in Medfield, Mass. and died there Nov. 12, 1716. His first wife was Lydia Rockwood, daughter of Richard and Agnes Bicknell. (Agnes was widow of Zachary Bicknell and was probably born Lovell), and she was the mother of Edward Adams (No. 182). The second wife of Edward Adams was widow Abigail (Craft) Ruggles whom he married in 1678, and who died in 1707, and the third wife was Sarah Taylor whom he married Jan. 6, 1709-10.

Edward Adams (No. 182) was born June 28, 1668 in Medfield, Mass. but resided in Bristol, R. I. where he died.

Thomas Andrews (No. 1688) came from Devonshire, England, and settled in Hingham, Mass., before 1635.

Joseph Andrews (No. 844) was Rep. of the town of Hingham at the Gen. Court 1636-8. His wife's name was Elizabeth.

Capt. Thomas Andrews (No. 422) was born in England in November, 1632, and married Ruth. For several years he was captain of a military company in Hingham. August 6, 1690, he and a number of soldiers under his command boarded a ship to go to Canada, with the expedition under Sir William Phipps. Capt. Andrews and most of his Hingham soldiers died on the expedition.

Michael Bacon (No. 276), of Dedham, Mass., son of Michael and Elizabeth (Wylie) Bacon, was baptized Dec. 6, 1579, and came to America with three sons. His wife was Alice.

John Beal (No. 1722) reached Hingham Mass. from Hingham, England, in 1638, and was Rep. to the Gen. Court from the former place. His wife was Nazareth Hobart, daughter of Edmund and Margaret (Dewey), and their daughter Sarah married Thomas Marsh (No. 860).

Capt. Thomas Brooks (No. 310) of Concord was Freeman 1636 when he was inhabitant of Watertown. He is believed to have come from London, Eng. His wife Grace died May 12, 1664. He is called "Captain" on all the records but we find no mention of his military service. He was Rep. to the Gen. Court 1642-4 and for four years after 1650.

William Bucknam (No. 816) was born in Ipswich, Eng., and married Sarah Knowes, born about 1625, daughter of Thomas and Mary Knowes.

Lieut. Joses Bucknam (No. 408) was with Capt. Wheeler in 1675, and perhaps with Capt. Hinchman in 1676. He was born in 1641 and married Hannah Knowes, daughter of George and Elizabeth.

Robert Burditt (No. 392) of Malden, Mass. first appears there upon his marriage to Hannah Winter, November 1653.
